

LOSS OF

U. S. 7-30 TREASURY NOTES

WITH COUPONS AND U. S. COUPON BONDS.

Taken from the First National Bank of St. Albans, Vt., by raiders, on the 19th of October, 1864, the following 7-30 Treasury Notes and U. S. 5-20 Bonds, together with all coupons attached, the coupons of former payable the 15th of August and 15th of February, and those of the latter payable May 1 and November 1, of each year, viz :

4	$1,000	7-30	Treasury Notes,	Nos. 18,681 to 18,684 inclusive.
19	$500	"	"	" Nos. 28,083 to 28,101 "
102	$100	"	"	" Nos. 184,073 to 184,172 " also Nos. 142,563 and 142,574 "
109	$50	"	"	" Nos. 16,285 to 16,296 " 20,587 to 20,640 " 30,088 to 30,096 " 134,960 to 134,980 " 20,645 to 20,646 " 20,665 to 20,673 " 134,947 and 30,081 "

all payable to blank order and dated Aug. 15, 1864.

Also one $1,000 U. S. 5-20 Coupon Bond, No. 7,901, no series, and two $100 U. S. 5-20 Coupon Bonds, Nos. 45,087 and 45,089, 2d series, dated May 1, 1862.

The above mentioned Treasury Notes and Bonds have been caveated upon the Books of the Treasury Department, and this notice is to warn all persons against purchasing either the Treasury Notes, Bonds, or Coupons.